SMITHTOWN, NY - There is nothing better than being recognized.

Managing Director of Bimser International Corporation Kevin (Kursad) Devecioglu got recognized by Hauppauge Industrial Association of Long, New York (HIA-LI) for his services to manufacturing community in Long Island as co-chairman of Manufacturing/International Trade Committee of HIA-LI

At the event of HIA-LI annual luncheon, board members of HIA-LI presented a certificate of recognition to Kevin (Kursad) Devecioglu along with cochairman Ron Loveland of Summit Safety Company.

HIA-LI President & CEO Terri Alessi - Miceli said " It was Margaret Mead who once said, "Never underestimate the power of a few committed passionate people. It is the thing that can change the world." Our honorees are a fine example of that. Whether they have partnered with the community to carry out initiatives critical to the survival and growth of Long Island Business or helped develop HIA-LI committee projects that impact a certain industry - they are all exceptional leaders.

During his speech, Mr. Devecioglu said " I am honored for this recognition. Thank you HIA-LI and thank you Bimser International. We are in changing times. First time in U.S. history, American manufacturers are hiring more employees with college degrees. This shift is happening because of digital evolution in the marketplace and increasing importance of technology. It is time for digital transformation and as Manufacturing Committee, we will continue to facilitate educational events for manufacturers of Long Island, New York."

Many manufacturers and professionals attended annual luncheon at Stonebridge Country Club in Smithtown, New York.
